INTRODUCTORY SALE WILL BEGIN THURSDAY

Mr. Phil Rosenberg Recently Bought Out Stock of A. Lesser Company.

Mr. Phil Rosenberg, who recently bought out the stock of A. Lesser on West side of the square announces in this morning's Intelligencer an introductory sale, commencing Thursday morning, May 4th and lasting through Monday, May 15th. Mr. Rosenberg comes to Anderson from Washington, Ga., where for past eight years he conducted one among the largest and most successful dry goods and men's furnishing stores in the place. He brings with him Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Anders, Mr. Murray Wynn and Mr. J. R. Maxwell, all of whom are experienced salespeople, and will retain of the help employed by Mr. Lesser, Mrs. Hemmree and Mr. J. R. Simpson.

Mr. Rosenberg is a live wire, being a great believer in the judicious use of printers' ink, and his advertising man, Mr. J. R. Maxwell, has the happy faculty of knowing how to present their numerous merchandise attractions in an interesting manner.

The sale will be conducted in the Lesser store room on West side of square, which is being especially arranged for the new firm and which will be thoroughly remodeled, both floors, making it one among the prettiest stores in the city.

Bar "Naughty" Postcards.

Atlanta, Ga., April 23.—Downtown street, Atlanta's most noted thoroughfare, next to the famous Peachtree where Atlanta peaches bloom the year round, is the possessor of a good many different institutions that are suitably located with reference to the police station, which keeps suitably located with reference to the police station, which keeps a constant watchful eye on the doings of its denizens, but one of the things it must not permit itself, not only after May 1, but now and at all other times, is naughty postcards. A policeman patrolling his beat found a cut-rate jeweler dispensing some pictures that made even the Decatur bartenders blush, and when arraigned before Recorder Johnson the jeweler was ordered to burn his cards or shake Atlanta's dust from off his shoes. He took the former course.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She mixed Sulphur with it to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness.

Cinnamon garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a 50-cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not actual, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it is naturally so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

This preparation is a delicate toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of diseases.

RESULTS OF SCHOOL TO BE FAR REACHING

DR. CARVER'S CONCLUDING LECTURE WAS MOST INTERESTING

AGAIN NEXT YEAR

Telegram From Dr. White Read on Closing Night Asking For Another School.

The Sunday School Training school which has been held at the First Baptist church during the past week came to a close on Friday night. Dr. Carver's concluding lecture was a splendid interpretation of the "Teachings of the Book of Revelation," showing that God and his Kingdom will ultimately triumph. His lectures each evening have been a source of great benefit showing rare scholarship, profound thought, and deep spirituality.

At the conclusion of the lecture, Dr. Watts had the privilege of presenting to Mr. E. S. Reeves, pastor of the Home Path Baptist church, a diploma for post graduate work done in the course of Sunday school pedagogy. He commended this spirit on the part of pastors as an excellent one, thus enabling them to put new life and enthusiasm into the Sunday schools of their churches.

Resolutions Offered. Resolutions were offered by Mr. Reeves expressing on the part of the visitors their appreciation of the hospitality of the Anderson people and of the work done by the able faculty who conducted the Training school.

At this juncture a telegram was read from Dr. J. E. White in which he expressed his keen regret at not being here for the week and also the hope that the Training school would be recommended for next year. The latter was unanimously voted for and the whole congregation arose to their feet to express their joy at Dr. White's rapid recovery.

Much of the success of the Training school was due to the dean, Dr. T. J. Watts, and the able faculty he brought here. They completely won the hearts of the people and it is hoped they will be brought to our midst again. At the suggestion of Dr. White each one was given a gold stick pin as a souvenir of their week in Anderson. Dr. Smithers in a few appropriate words made the presentation and Dr. Watts replied in his usual happy manner. He said that he had held many Training Schools but this was the first time such a thing had happened.

The actual work of the school is over, the results are just in their beginnings and they will be far reaching. Over 30 Baptist churches were represented and a number of workers were gladly welcomed from the other denominations. A new era for the Sunday schools of Saluda association has dawned.

Equinox Defeats Riverdale. Equinox was winner over Riverdale yesterday afternoon by a score of 5 to 1 in a well played game. Equinox players clouted the ball when hits meant runs, and although Riverdale secured four hits to their 3 and 7 errors of the defeated team cost them the game. Three errors were made by the Equinox players.

Elementary Union. The Elementary Union will meet Monday afternoon at 6 o'clock in Central Presbyterian church. Note change of hour to meet the desire of those who wish to attend the Chautauque, also. A good program has been arranged and everyone invited to attend. Visitors welcome.

Read on the last page of this paper what others think of College Heights, and then meet us there at 4 o'clock sharp Monday, May 1st, (tomorrow.) The Ford'll leave us there.

BIG FOUR COMPANY GOES TO PELZER

A. M. Pinkston, Local Theatre Man, Is in Charge—Successful Week Here.

The Big Four Amusement company has just closed a very successful week in Anderson, playing under canvass. Mr. A. M. Pinkston owns controlling interest in this company and for that reason much interest is being manifested in its success.

From Anderson the company goes to Pelzer for a week's stay, playing under canvass there also. The company will continue to play under canvass all summer, and many South Carolina towns have already been booked.

The Big Four Amusement company is made up of the cream of the talent that has been coming to the Palace in Anderson for the past several months and nearly all of the performers have more than usual talent. The shows which have been given here during the past week have been largely attended and have met with the approval of the patrons. Wholesome comedies have been given, and these have delighted the audiences.

A brass band, composed of nine pieces, travels with the show and gives two band concerts daily. The playing of this band adds much to the show.

Stork Is Expected.

Atlanta, Ga., April 23.—Atlanta society people who have been entertaining the stars of the Metropolitan Opera company with a continuous round of receptions, dances and banquets since their arrival last Monday, have been disappointed by the absence from these functions of Madame Margaret Ober, the famous German contralto, who in private life is Mrs. Arthur Arndt, wife of her former music teacher. She and her husband have sojourned quietly in their hotel, her only appearance being in the two roles she sang this week. Yesterday the disappointed hosts of the various social functions, who had begun to feel a bit provoked at what they were inclined to consider Madame Ober's indifference to their hospitality, discovered the reason why she has accepted none of their invitations. Mr. and Mrs. Arndt are expecting a visit from the stork in July.
